W: Hi. I'm interested in one of the paintings in the gallery. Can you tell how much it is?

M: Certainly. Which one?

W: That one in the corner. The artist's name is Arna Baartz.

M: Oh, yes. A lot of people have been asking about that. She was featured in a documentary recently and has become rather famous. The price is quite high, I'm afraid. It's 13,000 dollars.

W: Uh...I think I'll pass. Unfortunately, it's out of my price range.

M: Quite understandable. Shall I ask Ms. Baartz if she could negotiate on the price?

W: I don't think she'll reduce it to the price I want to pay. I'll have a look at some of the others.

44. What are the speakers mainly discussing?

- (A) The history of an artist
- (B) The length of a show
- (C) The result of a competition
- (D) The price of a painting

Answer: (D)

45. What did Ms. Baartz recently do?

- (A) Appeared in a documentary
- (B) Taught a course

- (C) Mail some forms
- (D) Change her travel plans

Answer: (B)

Question 50 through 52 refer to the following conversation.

M: Ms. Philips, can I have a word with you? Apparently, there's some new wallpaper being advertised on television. It's called Anti-Stain. Customers have been asking about it all week. If we had it in stock, maybe they'd buy glue, brushes and all the other items at the same time. We might be losing a lot of business.

W: Can you find out what company makes the product? I'll talk to Mr. Rodriguez about ordering some.

M: Mr. Rodriguez? Does he work at headquarters?

W: Yes, he buys all the stock for the stores in our chain.

M1: I'm going shopping for some stationery. Do you need anything?

W: Are you heading to that office supply store?

M1: Yeah. I'll be back in a few minutes.

M2: Oh, you mean the store just down the street. I'll come with you, then. I need a calendar and some pens, but I want to choose them myself.

W: could you get me some staples and paper clips while you're there?

M2: Is that all you need?

W: That's about it. I buy most things online.

M2: OK. We'll be back soon.

56. What is the conversation mainly about?

- (A) Purchasing stationery supplies
